

As a parent I want time between medical treatment to be spent productively so that my child does not become depressed and lethargic.